

We're Going on a Bear Hunt Week

The children really enjoyed looking at the Bear Hunt story book and exploring and taking part in all the different Bear hunt themed activities.

The children loved making binoculars and using them to see if they could find the bear.

They really enjoyed taking part in the forest school looking at and feeling all the different textures in the sensory trays.

The children also loved doing a painting trying to copy pictures from the book.

